

Suggested focus questions for this activity

Task 1

What does a sheep do all day?

- What sorts of things might a sheep do during the day? Why do you think that?
- What might they do at night? How do you know?
- When do they eat? How do you know?
- Do you think sheep drink water and sleep? Why do you think that?
- Who looks after sheep? Why do you think that?
- What needs do these animals have? How do you know?

Task 2

What can we find out by observing sheep?

- Why do we farm sheep? What makes you think that?
- What do you think we use sheep for? Why do you think this?
- What does the sheep feel like?
- How do you think the sheep's coat is taken off? Why do you think that?
- What happens to the coat after that? How do you know?

Task 3

What do we need to complete the sheep jigsaw?

- What else do you want to find out about sheep?
- What data about sheep could you search for?
- How will you search for this information?
- What sort of websites might be best to find this information? Why do you think that?
- How will you know if the information you find is true/reliable? Why does that make it true/reliable?

Task 4

What dangers do grazing animals face?

- What might be a danger to you in the cartoon image? Why do you think that?
- How could this be a danger to you? How do you know?
- What harm could you come to? What makes you think that?
- How could this danger be prevented? Why would that work?
- What would be the greatest danger to you? Why do you think that?
- What should people do if they are on land where you are grazing? Why?

Task 5

How do I tell a story like a sheep?

- How will you start your story/cartoon? Why start it like this?
- What information do you want the story/cartoon to contain? Why?
- What type of story/cartoon will you create? Why?
- How could your story/cartoon be an adventure, comedy or horror?
- How will your story/cartoon end? Why?

